

McMahon and Associates Acquires Accounting Firms

McMahon and Associates Certified Public Accountants of Munster is excited to announce the acquisition of two separate accounting firms: Oak Partners Tax and Accounting in Griffith and Roy Jensen CPA located in St. John, Indiana.

Oak Partners Tax and Accounting provides tax preparation and small business accounting services to 614 individual households and business clients predominately located in Northwest Indiana.

The entire full time staff and the core seasonal staff have been retained, providing a seamless transition for Oak Partners Tax and Accounting clients to McMahon and Associates. Oak Partners and McMahon & Associates clients can utilize either the Oak Partners Merrillville office or McMahon and Associates Munster office for drop-off, delivery and client meetings.

Roy Jensen CPA has provided highly professional tax preparation and small business accounting services to individual households and business clients located in the Northwest Indiana and Chicago areas for more than 20 years.

As McMahon and Associates continues to grow, the firm remains committed to providing the locally owned, personalized, quality, large firm services at local firm pricing that our clients have come to appreciate.
